

Travellers' TIMES

Help Secure Our Future

Leave a legacy and plan your giving by remembering Travellers' Times in your Will and you will ensure Gypsies and Travellers have a voice for years to come.

No matter how small, leaving a legacy will make a real difference. Legacies are one of the easiest ways of giving to a charity, whilst having the added advantage of relief from inheritance tax.

Leaving a gift in your Will to Travellers' Times is a very easy and cost effective way of supporting our work and future generations of Gypsies and Travellers nationwide. Gifts in Wills help us fund Travellers' Times and its important services to the community. We could not do what we do without such gifts.

Leaving a legacy to Travellers' Times involves adding a short paragraph (clause) to your Will. We would always recommend that you use a qualified solicitor to assist you with this.

Of course family and friends must be foremost in your thoughts. But any legacy left in your Will to Travellers' Times, no matter how small, is key to us continuing our important work.

If you would like to leave a legacy to the general work of 'Travellers' Times, please look at the 'Leave a Legacy' document on our website www.travellerstimes.org.uk, or contact us at...
